

TEAM OF THE YEAR 2017

WINNER - PERSONAL INJURY TEAM LEGAL & RISK SERVICES

The Legal & Risk Personal Injury Team at the NWSSP Staff Recognition Awards 2017

The development of junior staff and a sense of working with and for one another is a joy that is embraced by the whole team.

Left: Pretty James, Alex Burke, Hannah Salerno, Andrew Hynes, Robert Jenkins, Lauren Thomas, Lowenna Mummery and Louise Northcote

Not pictured: Bethan Richards, Saliha Mahmood and Sebastian Pearce

ALTHOUGH ANDREW
NOMINATED HIS TEAM
FOR OUR INNOVATION
CATEGORY THE JUDGES FELT THE NOMINATION WAS A
STRONG CONTENDER
FOR TEAM OF THE YEAR.

The judges were impressed with the teams mission statement 'Be the Best, Do the Most, Innovate' and their winning formula of their weekly workshop session. Andrew ensures his team meet every week and they hold a workshop session which is the hub of their innovative practice and one of the reasons why the team are so successful.

It is evident that the team's participation and enthusiasm is incredible. Every week there is a buzz of excitement and enthusiasm for the workshop which has been instrumental in building the tremendous team spirit that is clearly visible within the personal injury team.

The workshop structure includes:

- Client focused innovation
- Bespoke Lectures
- Departmental Efficiency focus
- Ideas for twitter posts
- Horizon scanning and general management
- The seven habits of highly effective people.

JUDGES' ★ COMMENTS

"The team are also involved in a range of fundraising activities which take place outside of the work place. The judges felt this team were worthy winners for NWSSP team of the year 2017 "

