WHBN 00-08 Estatecode - Wales 2018

This Welsh Health Building Note provides detailed advice about the active management of land and property used for healthcare services. By using this guidance, NHS organisations in Wales should be able to secure efficient and effective property solutions through the use of property resources in order to deliver better health and social care in addition to developing opportunities to achieve efficiency savings and reduce costs.

It replaces previous guidance: HBN 00-08 Estatecode – Wales Edition 2009.
