

A message from our Managing Director...

Dear Candidate,

I am delighted that you have shown an interest in applying for a role at NHS Wales Shared Services Partnership, where innovation meets compassion, and excellence is a way of life. It is a fantastic time to join us! As the Managing Director, it is my pleasure to invite talented individuals to join our dedicated team, shaping the future of healthcare support services in Wales.

At NHS Wales Shared Services Partnership, we are more than an organisation; we are a community of passionate professionals committed to making a difference. Here, you will find a dynamic environment that nurtures growth, fosters collaboration and empowers you to thrive. Our commitment to providing outstanding healthcare support services is unwavering, and we are looking for individuals who share our dedication and enthusiasm. We are an inclusive employer and take positive action to ensure our workforce reflects the diversity of our communities we serve.

By choosing to work with us, you will be part of a team that values diversity, innovation, and continuous learning. Together, we are redefining the standards of professional, administrative and technical support services in NHS Wales. Whether you are a seasoned professional, a fresh graduate or school leaver, your skills and ideas have a place here, contributing to the betterment of healthcare for the people of Wales.

I encourage you to explore the rewarding career opportunities available at NHS Wales Shared Services Partnership. Join us in our mission in Delivering Value, Innovation and Excellence through Partnership and create a positive impact on the lives of thousands. Your journey towards a fulfilling career begins here with us.

If you are interested and want to hear more please contact us, we would love to speak to you.
